Art/Creation Therapy:

Have you ever felt the enjoyment of the creative process? From Tie-Dye T-shirts, to Slime, to canvas pour painting - you never know what awesome creation is in the works by consumers at Day-Hab.

This month, consumers get the chance to learn & practice how to turn cardboard into a painting canvas with one of their favorite local artists: Jeri Sparks!!

In July, Day Habilitation switched up schedules & implemented opportunities for increased consumer choice in activities & participation. This transition is still in progress, but Day-Hab services coordinator Amanda is working with each individual to assist in this transition period.
